

Partners' Perspectives on the Value of a Patient-Researcher Partnership

- Julia Slejko, PhD, Assistant Professor, Pharmaceutical Health Services Research, University of Maryland School of Pharmacy

63

63

PAVE: Patient-Driven Values in Healthcare Evaluation

A Center of Excellence at University of Maryland School of Pharmacy in collaboration with the National Health Council

- Funded by the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America (PhRMA) Foundation

Mission: To promote the inclusion of diversity in patient voices regarding the elements of value most important to patients.

64

64

PAVE Research Objectives

To elicit the value elements in health care decision-making that are important to the patient community

To incorporate these value elements into economic evaluations in order to better reflect the patient perspective in value assessment

Research Highlight: Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD)

